The Role of Female Workers in Chinese Labour Movement

ABSTRACT

This lecture/seminar will examine the role of female workers in the Chinese labour movements. The core questions will be discussed in this lecture are:

1. Has China transformed itself from the world factory sweat shop to an industrial upgraded country?
2. What are the social changes of the industrial relations in China? This part will include the trade union and the development of grass-root labour organisations
3. More importantly, what have female workers contributed to the above changes, if there has been any changes in China's industrial relations from 1949 till present?
